

Chefsville-Kids: The American Revolution

(Assembly and Classroom Programs)

On-Campus

Time: 9am - 2:15pm, evenings for PTA/PTO orgs

Grades: K – 5

Community/Family, Talented/Gifted, Special Ed, Bilingual

Description

The American Revolution is one of the greatest ways to captivate and attract students to the exciting worlds of history, geography, culture, government and economics. There are so many fascinating characters and stories to be told to keep student imagination flowing. George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, John Hancock, Daniel Webster, Paul Revere, and several other military figures bring to life different views of our nation's birth.

This program is adjusted for TEKS and grade level appropriate. Food is a fantastic vehicle to provide an exciting learning adventure that will captivate students as they are the "STARS" in this workshop. Students expand their discovery of the incredible world through the need of food to discover cooking, health and nutrition through this workshop while they practically apply social studies into their daily lives. Students will be working with ingredients, equipment and age appropriate culinary techniques. This program brings real world connection to Social Studies and culinary arts.

Students will

- learn about patriotic holidays such as presidents day and independence day and customs associated with each
- gain an understanding of cultural diversity through food, its ingredients, equipment and cooking techniques used in the time of George Washington
- learn about historical figures that shaped the nation
- learn about maps, voting and laws
- learn about basic needs versus wants and how our country's founders met those
- learn about Mount Vernon and Monticello and their role in "quality of life" and "Garden to Plate"
