

Chefsville-Kids: The Great State of Texas

(Assembly and Classroom Programs)

On-Campus

Time: 9am - 2:15pm, evenings for PTA/PTO orgs

Grades: K – 5

Community/Family, Talented/Gifted, Special Ed, Bilingual

Description

Students will discover the richness of Texas history as they learn about the Battle of the Alamo, Six Flags that flew over Texas, westward expansion, geography, and great people that influenced Texas and our country. Additionally, important events such as Texas Revolution, the Republic of TX and the annexation of TX to the US will be covered; as are the contributions of William B. Travis, James Bowie, David Crockett, Steven F. Austin, George Childress and Sidney Sherman.

Discussions, worksheets and activities that use social studies will allow students to make sense of their world while developing life-skills to make healthier choices for their success. Kids will shine as they focus on history, geography, economics, governmental, cultural, citizenship objectives using critical thinking, problem solving, relationship building and technology to develop conclusions through the world of culinary arts. This program brings real world connection to Social Studies and culinary arts.

Food is a fantastic vehicle to provide an exciting learning adventure that will captivate students as they are the “STARS” in this workshop. Students expand their discovery of the incredible world of cooking, health and nutrition through this workshop while they practically apply social studies into their daily lives.
